

The 2012 OFSAA Women's Sport School will be held on May 3 & 4, 2012
at Brock University in St. Catharines, Ontario.

The Women's Sports School is a professional development conference that brings together teacher-coaches from across the province to share ideas and get motivated. The program encompasses a wide variety of sessions for both curricular and co-curricular programs with sessions geared to high school and middle school teachers. The aim of the Women's Sport School is to increase participants' knowledge in several areas of school sport, expose them to new/unconventional sports, teaching methods, as well as provide opportunities for discussion groups with peers. This is an affordable professional development opportunity that should not be missed!

Day 1-participants will experience 2 in classroom session, 2 active educational sessions, tradeshow, dinner, social, and dance party.

Day 2- participants will experience 3 active educational sessions, awards presentation and keynote speaker.

The attendees will participate in a total of 7 educational sessions during the full conference.
